

Joachim Patinir

Introduction

Joachim Patinir was a famous painter from Belgium. He was born around 1480 in Dinant, Belgium.

Early Life

We don't know much about Patinir's early life. He probably learned to paint in the city of Bruges, which was famous for art and artists.

Art and Style

Joachim Patinir is known for painting landscapes. He liked to paint big, beautiful natural scenes with rivers, mountains, and skies. People called him a "landscape pioneer" because he was one of the first to paint landscapes in a special way.

Famous Works

Some of Patinir's famous paintings are Landscape with St. Jerome and The Rest on the Flight into Egypt. His paintings often have small religious stories in big, beautiful landscapes.

Death

Joachim Patinir died in 1524 in Antwerp, Belgium. He is remembered as a great landscape painter.