

Narrator: Every day the careless giant visits the village. The people are scared!

Child 1: Oh, no! The careless giant is coming!

Child 2: Quick! Run!

Child 3: Hide! It's the careless giant!

Giant: Hey, come back, everybody!

Narrator: The giant's got big feet! He's very careless!

Giant: Oh, look at the trees! Whoops! Oh, dear!

Susie: Oh, no! Look! He's stepping on the trees and flowers!

Narrator: The giant's got a big mouth!

Giant: Hmm, I'm thirsty!

Harry: What's he doing now?

Susie: He's drinking water! He's wasting water!

Harry: Oh, no! He isn't taking care!

Narrator: The giant makes a mess!

Harry: Oh, no! Now he's eating!

Giant: Mmm, I like food!

Susie: He's dropping litter everywhere.

Child 3: Go away, Giant!

Narrator: The giant is big and careless, but he isn't bad. He's sad.

Susie: What's he doing now?

Harry: He's crying!

Giant: I haven't got any friends! The people are scared. They don't like me!

Harry: Come on, Susie. Let's talk to him!

Hey, Giant! Are you listening?

Giant: Who's that? Hello! Can we be friends?

Harry: Yes, but Giant, you need to be careful.

Giant: Oh, OK! I need to be careful!

Narrator: Now, the giant isn't careless.

Adult 1: Oh, no! The giant is coming.

Child 1: Run!

Child 2: Oh, look! He's with Susie and Harry.

Giant: Let me help!

Child 1: Oh! He's helping.

Child 2: Oh, look! He's picking up litter.

Adult 1: He isn't wasting water!

Adult 2: Now, he's saving water.

Giant: Yes! I'm saving water.

Giant: Let me help!

Adult 1: What's he doing now?

Child 1: Now, he's planting trees and flowers.

Adult 1: Hurrah! He's taking care of the village!

Narrator: Now, the people aren't scared.

They live in peace with the giant.

Giant: I'm not the careless giant. I'm the careful giant! Are you careful, too?
